This document consists of [Redacted] a one-page tabular accounting report, in Russian, made by the SAG (Soviet Corporation) Kabel, and a brief summary in English.

The accounting report was made up for goods delivered according to an invoice of 20 January 1952. Shipments of the Sachsenwerk Radeberg (SWR), the Treptow Electrical Apparatus Plant (AT) in Berlin-Treptow, and the Siemens-Halske Plant (SH) in Swoenitz, which are listed under TEMA, are goods delivered in compliance with research and development orders. The cable production for the Oberspree Cable Plant (KWO) and the Koepernick Cable Plant (KWK) is listed separately.

The table headings are as follows: Consecutive number; name of product; factory; number of railroad cars: during month, during year; delivered during the planned ten-day period /sic/; delivered during the month; delivered since the beginning of the year. The last three columns are given in kilometers and in Deutsche marks.
